Nominating Committee Report

Date: November 13, 2026
Submitted by: Mikaela Lewis
Role: Point Person, Nominating Committee

This report outlines the work of the nominating committee in identifying and recommending candidates for election to Trent Radio's board of directors for the 2027 term. It summarizes the nomination process and introduces the nominees. These individuals have been selected to stand for election by the membership at Trent Radio's annual general meeting on December 6, 2026.

Nomination Process

- Recruitment efforts began in early-September 2026.
- Pamphlets and information was circulated at Trent University's Clubs and Groups Day in September 2026 to specifically seek Student members
- Trent Radio members were notified of openings on the board of directors through several weekly programmer check-in emails from Jill Staveley
- Interested individuals were encouraged to email info@trentradio.ca to request more information about the application process.
- Interested individuals were encouraged to fill out a form expressing their interest and those who filled it out were then contacted by email.
- Interested individuals were invited to join a monthly board meeting to gain a better understanding of the commitment.
- Emails were sent to members of particular interest to the board to encourage interest in joining.
- The slate of nominees was approved by the Nominating Committee and presented to the Board of Directors.

Nominees

The following individuals are being presented for consideration:
(in alphabetical order by last name)
Wes Grist – Community member (new)
Jacob Keogh – Student member
Lea Lannin – Student member (new)
Mikaela Lewis – Student member
Emily McLeod – Student member
David Newberry – Student member (new)
Bill Templeman – Community member

Conclusion

The nominating committee recommends that the membership consider the above candidates for positions on Trent Radio's board of directors during the annual general meeting on December 6,

2026. The nomination process reflects the committee's commitment to ensuring a diverse and qualified board of directors. We are grateful to the nominees for their enthusiasm and willingness to contribute to Trent Radio's purpose: to build community and empower a diverse collection of people to amplify their voices through radio by providing access to broadcasting facilities as well as training and mentorship opportunities.